FROM OVERSEAS

Mr. Dennis Seals received a very interesting letter from his nephew, Corporal S. T. Seals of the 805th, stating that he was well, having a fine time in spite of the hard work and damp climate, that he would not take anything for his experience and would have much to tell when he arrived home.

Phillip Johnson of the Medical Department, 805th Pioneer Infantry writes: "We long for America, but know that the boys who fell will miss our steady tramp. The big boats are in the harbor but I have work to do in Germany. Have been transferred to the 801st."

Ben F. Harris writes: "My quartette has not been beaten on the A. E. P. Circuit. The Oceana Harmony Four is composed of Steve Allen, Ben E. Harris, Geo. E. Lee and Wesley Monroe."

ROSEDALE, KANSAS.

Mr. Mr. Frank Huff has returned from Watonga, Okla., where he was called to the bedside of his father, Mr. James Huff, who passed away Wednesday at the age of 85 years.

Besides his son, he is survived by two daughters, one in El Reno, Okla., and the other in Watonga, Okla., and many other relatives. Mr. Huff had lived a Christian life for some time and was prepared for the solemn change.

Mrs. Mamie King of Galois, Ariz., is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. William Simpson. Mrs. Louise Mosley is ill at her residence. The Pleasant Valley Mission Circle met with Mrs. Geo. Scholer, Monday afternoon and had a splendid meeting. Madam Sadie Dimery of Kansas City, Mo., will give a lecture Sunday afternoon at the St. Paul A. M. E. Zion Church. The public is invited to hear her. She is a forceful speaker. Mr. and Mrs. McClinton entertained at an elaborate dinner party Sunday evening complimentary to Mrs. Mamie Simpson. The table held a large basket of beautiful pink roses and cover were laid for eighteen. It is able to be out again. Mr. and Mrs. Orville Dayton, 112 Mill St., announce the birth of their daughter, May 17, to whom they have given the name, Corretta Corrine. Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Pinkard gave a dinner Thursday evening complimentary to Mrs. Mamie Simpson. The table held a large basket of beautiful peonies and covers were laid for ten guests.

Mrs. W. G. Pinkard is visiting relatives in Topeka. Anyone wishing to have notes published must call Mrs. Rosa Jones, Monday evening of each week. Bell phone Rosedale 727V.

The Seniors are much engrossed these days in class pins, photos and invitations.

At the regular meeting of the Mothers' Club of the Model School last Thursday, the club members presented the Model School with a Victrola and several records. The Normal students are particularly grateful for the gift, as it will prove so helpful to them in their teaching of music to the little folks.

President Richardson is in great demand as a commencement speaker. He delivered addresses at Chillicothe and Huntsville last week and has several more engagements to fill. While away he also visited the Tom Bass farm in Mexico. He is loud in his praises of Missouri hospitality.

LINCOLN INSTITUTE NEWS.

Mrs. M. Brown of the Domestic Science Department, spent the weekend in Fulton, Mo.

Rev. George L. Barnes, pastor of the Episcopal Church of this city, gave an interesting talk on "The History of the Church" at the chapel services Sunday evening.

Miss Mabel Crump of McAllester, Okla., arrived Monday to spend the summer with her mother, who is matron of the Boys' Dormitory.

Prof. J. W. Danel of the Science Department, is attending a national convention of the Christian Church, which is in session at Edwardsville, Miss.

The various and varied class flower beds have added much to the natural attractiveness of our campus.

The final issue of the "Hill Top," our school paper, will be in the nature of an annual. In addition to the regular features, particular stress will be placed upon the alumni section.

Mr. J. P. King, teacher of Science in the Summer High School, Kansas City, Kans., stopped over night at our school, enroute to Fulton, Mo.

Miss Gladys Cornell, a former student of Lincoln, and at present a teacher of violin at Sedalia, gave an excellent recital in this city Friday night. She and Miss Kigh, also of Sedalia, were campus visitors Saturday.

The Senior Normal class was responsible for the program at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon. All the numbers were well rendered.

Mrs. C. Richardson entertained Misses Cornell and Kigh of Sedalia, Mo., at 3 o'clock dinner Saturday afternoon.

Pupils and teachers are busily working on commencement exhibits from their respective departments. Judging from the inquiries being daily received relative to our summer session, we are looking forward to a large enrollment.
